St Eanswythe's Altona :: St Clement's Altona Meadows :: O Te Wairua Tapu Ki Poipiripi

*To proclaim God's love and life in Christ:
growing in faith † serving others † nurturing a common life*

10th October 2021 TWENTIETH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

8am Morning Prayer, streamed on Facebook
9:30am Service of Scripture and Prayer, on Zoom

Welcome...

...whether you are sharing in worship online or reading this pew sheet quietly at home. The life of our parish continues, as together we praise the Lord, reflect on God's word, and pray for the world, the church, our community and each other.

We look forward to gathering again in person as soon as possible.

Our parish lies on the country of the Kulin nation. We recognise and honour the Indigenous custodians of this land over countless generations, and we pay our respects to their elders, past and present.

We commit ourselves to the path of reconciliation, justice and healing (including to Pay The Rent to local First Nations people).

SHARING THE PATH OF FAITH

reflections from the clergy and our parish community

Dear friends,

As has been announced for some time, our Annual Parish Meeting will be held on Sunday 31st October, at 10:30am on Zoom. Obviously it would be preferable to be gathering in person, but as we discovered last year, it is reasonably possible on Zoom for everyone to participate and for us to achieve what is necessary! Please don't hesitate to contact me or one of the churchwardens if you are concerned about how to take part.

As always, this is a time for each of us to be considering who might be nominated to serve on Parish Council, as churchwardens, and as members of the Incumbency Committee.

For churchwardens and members of Parish Council, we are looking for people who are:

- Committed to the life and flourishing of our parish
- Willing to work with others in discerning the leading of the Holy Spirit
- Seeking to grow in faith and understanding
- Able to attend a monthly meeting (on Zoom) as well as working proactively with others on particular projects

Could this be you? Or is there someone you would like to nominate? Please do give some thought and prayer to this question, as it is the responsibility of the whole parish to elect a Parish Council that is well equipped to do its work. If you have any sense that this might be you, please feel free to talk further with any current member of Parish Council or with me. Nomination forms are available now on the parish website.

Talking of church governance and annual meetings, this week is our diocesan Synod—in a sense the “annual meeting” of the whole diocese. Some months ago a decision was made to hold this meeting online—with around 600 participants, this is a considerably more challenging undertaking than our parish meeting! Quite apart from the technological aspects, there are—as always—matters of substance and significance to be discussed, including a long-overdue revision of the process for electing an archbishop. So please do pray for these Synod meetings, and for our parish Synod representatives Sandra Hansen and Anna Watts, who will be participating along with Rev'd Kathryn and myself.

With my prayers for the flourishing of our parish and diocese, Chris

PRAYERS AND READINGS FOR THIS SUNDAY

THE COLLECT (PRAYER OF THE DAY)

Almighty God, in your wisdom you have so ordered our earthly life that we must walk by faith and not by sight: give us such trust in your fatherly care that in the face of all perplexities we may give proof of our faith by the courage of our lives; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

FIRST READING

A reading from the book of Job

Job answered:

Today my complaint is again bitter;
my strength is weighed down because of my groaning.

Oh, that I could know how to find him—
come to his dwelling place;

I would lay out my case before him,
fill my mouth with arguments,
know the words with which he would answer, understand what he would say to me.

Would he contend with me through brute force?
No, he would surely listen to me.

There those who do the right thing can argue with him;

I could escape from my judge forever.

Look, I go east; he's not there, west, and don't discover him;
north in his activity, and I don't grasp him;
he turns south, and I don't see.

God has weakened my mind;
the Almighty has frightened me.
Still I'm not annihilated by darkness;
he has hidden deep darkness from me.

(23.1-9, 16-17; CEB)

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

PSALM

My God, my God, why have you forsaken me: why are you so far from helping me, and from the words of my groaning?

My God, I cry to you by day, but you do not answer:
and by night also I take no rest.

But you continue holy: you that are the praise of Israel.

In you our forebears trusted: they trusted, and you delivered them;

To you they cried and they were saved: they put their trust in you and were not confounded.

But as for me, I am a worm and no man: the scorn of all and despised by the people.

Those that see me laugh me to scorn: they shoot out their lips at me and wag their heads, saying,

'He trusted in the Lord—let him deliver him: let him deliver him, if he delights in him.'

But you are he that took me out of the womb: that brought me to lie at peace on my mother's breast.

On you have I been cast since my birth: you are my God, even from my mother's womb.

O go not from me, for trouble is hard at hand: and there is none to help.

Many oxen surround me: fat bulls of Bashan close me in on every side.

They gape wide their mouths at me: like lions that roar and rend.

I am poured out like water, and all my bones are out of joint: my heart within my breast is like melting wax.

My mouth is dried up like a potsherd: and my tongue clings to my gums.

(22.1-15)

SECOND READING

A reading from the letter to the Hebrews

God's word is living, active, and sharper than any two-edged sword. It penetrates to the point that it separates the soul from the spirit and the joints from the marrow. It's able to judge the heart's thoughts and intentions. No creature is hidden from it, but rather everything is naked and exposed to the eyes of the one to whom we have to give an answer.

Also, let's hold on to the confession since we have a great high priest who passed through the heavens, who is Jesus, God's Son; because we don't have a high priest who can't sympathize with our weaknesses but instead one who was tempted in every way that we are, except without sin.

Finally, let's draw near to the throne of favour with confidence so that we can receive mercy and find grace when we need help.

(4.12-16; CEB)

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

THE GOSPEL

A reading from the Gospel according to Mark

As Jesus continued down the road, a man ran up, knelt before him, and asked, "Good Teacher, what must
I do to obtain eternal life?"

Jesus replied, "Why do you call me good? No one is good except the one God. You know the commandments: Don't commit murder. Don't commit adultery. Don't steal. Don't give false testimony. Don't cheat. Honour your father and mother."

"Teacher," he responded, "I've kept all of these things since I was a boy."

Jesus looked at him carefully and loved him. He said, "You are lacking one thing. Go, sell what you own, and give the money to the poor. Then you will have treasure in heaven. And come, follow me." But the man was dismayed at this statement and went away saddened, because he had many possessions.

Looking around, Jesus said to his disciples, "It will be very hard for the wealthy to enter God's kingdom!"
His words startled the disciples, so Jesus told them again, "Children, it's difficult to enter God's kingdom!
It's easier for a camel to squeeze through the eye of a needle than for a rich person to enter God's kingdom."

They were shocked even more and said to each other, “Then who can be saved?”

Jesus looked at them carefully and said, “It’s impossible with human beings, but not with God. All things are possible for God.”

Peter said to him, “Look, we’ve left everything and followed you.”

Jesus said, “I assure you that anyone who has left house, brothers, sisters, mother, father, children, or farms because of me and because of the good news will receive one hundred times as much now in this life—houses, brothers, sisters, mothers, children, and farms (with harassment)—and in the coming age, eternal life. But many who are first will be last. And many who are last will be first.”

(10.17-31; CEB)

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

NOTES AND NEWS

for your information and prayers, from around and beyond the parish

Blessing of Animals!

Last Sunday afternoon we marked Saint Francis’ Day with some online festivities and a blessing of animals! Thanks to all who joined in on Zoom and introduced us to a great variety of furry and feathered friends.

Welcome

To Nils von Kalm from Anglican Overseas Aid, who joins us as guest preacher today. Our parish supports AOA through our mission giving: you can find more details on their website at anglicanoverseasaid.org.au

Ordination of priests

Archbishop Philip has indicated his intention to ordain our assistant curate, the Rev’d Kathryn Bellhouse, to the office of priest, on Saturday 27 November (exact arrangements to be confirmed depending on restrictions). This will be a wonderful and significant moment in her ministry—our congratulations and prayers are with you, Kathryn!

As a parish we will be making a presentation to Rev’d Kathryn on this occasion, and you are invited to contribute generously towards this gift. Contributions can be made by direct deposit, with the reference “ordination gift”.

Lectionaries and Calendars

It is time once again to place your orders for next year’s Australian Anglican lectionaries and calendars. Do consider buying extra calendars as gifts! You can order using the online form or by contacting the parish office.

Annual Parish Meeting

Our Annual Meeting will be held on Sunday 31 October, and as last year we will need to use Zoom. Please don’t hesitate to contact the vicar or one of the wardens if you are keen to join in but unable to use Zoom.

- The parish electoral roll is about to be updated in preparation for the meeting. If you wish to join the electoral roll and intend to participate in the meeting, please complete the form available online or from the office, and return it by Wednesday 13 October.
- Documents relating to the Annual Meeting will be added to this page on our website over coming weeks. In particular, you can find there a notice of a proposed change to the size of our Parish Council, and also the nomination form for Churchwardens, members of Parish Council, and members of Incumbency Committee.
- Please send reports for the Annual Meeting to parish@anglicanaltlav.org.au by Monday 11 October.

Looking ahead: dates for the diary

31 October

Annual Parish Meeting: 10:30am on Zoom

7 November

All Souls’ service: 5pm at St Eanswythe’s (subject to restrictions) and live streamed

Readings for next Sunday: 17th October (Twenty-First Sunday after Pentecost)
